DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings were received on November 25, 2009. These drawings are accepted.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see page 10, first full paragraph, filed November 25, 2009, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1-4 under 35 USC §102(b) have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of the Japanese document JP 49-45401 cited by Applicant in the November 25, 2009 IDS.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Japanese Patent Application Publication Laid-open No. 49-45401.

The aforementioned document was first cited in the November 25, 2009 filed IDS.

Application/Control Number: 10/576,322

Art Unit: 3745

The Japanese document has the axially extending impeller inlet ring, whereas Applicant's disclosed drawings do not show such an embodiment. However, this distinction is not claimed. Further, the unclaimed distinction may not be supported by Applicant's written disclosure, and therefore precluded the examiner from offering patentable subject matter.

The Japanese document shows a centrifugal pump comprising: a drive unit 1 and a hydraulic unit comprising a housing 4 and a closed impeller 6; the housing having a wall 4 defining an axial gap with the front face of the closed impeller, the axial gap separating a secondary flow space from the housing inlet opening, wherein the wall 4 has a groove 5 therein, the groove arranged below the axial gap (see FIG. 1).

For claim 3, at least a portion of the ridges, or sidewalls of the grooves 5 is below the aforementioned axial gap.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Japanese Patent Application Publication Laid-open No. 49-45401.

The Japanese document teaches the spiral grooves 5, but fails to expressly recite an 85-95 degree inclination or cut0out of the groove, with respect to the wall 4. Application/Control Number: 10/576,322

Art Unit: 3745

The drawing of FIG. 1 seems to show a 90 degree angle, and thus suggest a specific value within the claimed range. But more appropriately, the claimed range would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made for the purpose of optimizing the effectiveness of the groove 5.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
